The information and updates on the reverse side are important. Please take a moment to read it. The information submitted on this form will be used as the basis for your listing in our Members and Dates Book, our website listings and, for horse show participants, the Annual Green Book.

Registration and Convention Notes

Check our website (www.kafs.net) or Facebook (Kentucky County Fairs) for convention programs and updates.

—The deadline to pay fees and avoid penalties for next year's beauty pageants is now December 31 of this year. Your 2017 pageant fee must be paid in order to participate in the January pageant. And, you must pay your annual dues in order to be a "member in good standing."

—We're introducing a "coupon" system for drinks at our annual president's reception on Thursday night. Each registered attendee will receive two coupons for free drinks during the first hour of the reception, thanks to our sponsors at the Kentucky State Fair. As you might imagine, the cost of providing food and beverage is very expensive and we want to make sure no one is abusing the generosity of our sponsors, while still maintaining a festive atmosphere.

—We're swapping our Saturday line-up during convention, moving the general business session to that afternoon to concentrate on the trade show and some special programs that morning. Remind your delegates the trade show will close at noon and everyone is expected at the business session and awards presentations that afternoon.

—Last year, we raised almost $18,000 to be used for youth scholarships for our younger county fair volunteers. Please help us this year by bringing items valued at $100 or more to the Thursday auction. (We do ask, however, that if liquor is included in an auction basket, that the basket also have other items.) We also have to prohibit any alcoholic beverages that can't be legally sold in Kentucky.

—The association is again using professional security personnel this year to assure all visitors to the convention have the proper credentials. Everyone attending the reception, seminars, trade show, Showcase of Talent and other programs will be required to have current badges. Advance registration will save you 33%, so it makes sense to take advantage of it.

—Miranda Schack Chaplin is again the publisher of the Green Book for the horse shows. All information, however, will be sent to the KAFHS office (Somerset) by February 15. All horse show info (membership, class sheets, Green Book info and results) will be sent to the same address. Don't miss the deadline. Your inclusion is at no additional cost and is one of the best means of promotion you'll find. It is strongly advised that the information be sent digitally. Doing so removes all chance of errors on our part and streamlines the editing process.

—If you don't know the date of your event or are missing a chairman or two when you complete this form, submit the form and payment and update information as it becomes available.

—On the very first part of the application, you are asked to name "Person To Receive All Mail." This is exactly as stated and will be the one person we look to with any correspondence about horse shows, pageants, dues and all other information pertaining to your membership.

—In order to advertise that your horse show participates in the Association's High Point Awards Program and that you are a member of our Association, the appropriate fee must be paid. If you have more than one show, fees must be paid for the additional show. (A member can have up to two shows annually, but no more.) Individual and Family members attend our member shows in order to receive points and to qualify for county fair classes at the World's Championship Horse Show at the State Fair. At the conclusion of your show, you must forward a copy of the show program and the class sheet results to the Association.
