The information and updates on the reverse side are important. Please take a moment to read it. The information submitted on this form will be used as the basis for your listing in our Members and Dates Book, our website listings and, for horse show participants, the Annual Green Book.

Registration and Convention Notes

Check our website (www.kafs.net) or Facebook (Kentucky County Fairs) for convention programs and updates.

—This could be the most important KAFHS convention you've ever attended. We're converting all our membership renewals, pageant entries, payments and other reporting to an online system, meaning we won't be mailing and handling paperwork like we have in the past. Our "webmasters" will be on hand, conducting training sessions for our county fair representatives at 4 on Friday afternoon and 10 on Saturday morning. These are the only two training sessions being offered before we switch to the online service next summer. Please have someone from your organization take advantage of this training.

—The deadline to pay fees and avoid penalties for next year's beauty pageants is now December 31 of this year. Your 2018 pageant fee must be paid in order to participate in the January pageant. And, you must pay your annual dues in order to be a "member in good standing."

—The Kentucky State Fair is again sponsoring our President's Reception Thursday evening. We expect several board members present at the reception. Be sure to tell them how much we appreciate the working relationship we have with the fair and thank them for their support.

—The change in general business session last year seemed to work well, so we're continuing it: general business session in the afternoon to concentrate on the trade show and some special programs that morning. Remind your delegates the trade show will close at 1 pm and everyone is expected at the business session and awards presentations that afternoon.

—Last year, we raised almost $12,000 to be used for youth scholarships for our younger county fair volunteers. Please help us this year by bringing items valued at $100 or more to the Thursday auction. (We do ask, however, that if liquor is included in an auction basket, that the basket also have other items.) We also have to prohibit any alcoholic beverages that can't be legally sold in Kentucky.

—Miranda Schack Chaplin is again the publisher of the Green Book for the horse shows. All information, however, will be sent to the KAFHS office (Somerset) by February 15. All horse show info (membership, class sheets, Green Book info and results) will be sent to the same address. Don't miss the deadline. Your inclusion is at no additional cost and is one of the best means of promotion you'll find. It is strongly advised that the information be sent digitally. Doing so removes all chance of errors on our part and streamlines the editing process.

—On the very first part of the application, you are asked to name "Person To Receive All Mail." This is exactly as stated and will be the one person we look to with any correspondence about horse shows, pageants, dues and all other information pertaining to your membership.

—In order to advertise that your horse show participates in the Association's High Point Awards Program and that you are a member of our Association, the appropriate fee must be paid. If you have more than one show, fees must be paid for the additional show. (A member can have up to two shows annually, but no more.) Individual and Family members attend our member shows in order to receive points and to qualify for county fair classes at the World's Championship Horse Show at the State Fair. At the conclusion of your show, you must forward a copy of the show program and the class sheet results to the Association.
